AFTER 30TH JUNE YOU WILL FACE SANCTIONS

THIS IS WHAT THE LAW SAYS ABOUT FAILURE TO FILE ANNUAL COMPANIES INCOME TAX RETURNS

25 DAYS REMAINING

THE COUNTDOWN BEGINS NOW

All principal officers, especially Chairmen, Managing Directors, Executive Directors, Chief Financial Officers etc. of companies, including those exempted from incorporation and those not liable to pay tax, are required to file self-assessment returns with the Federal Inland Revenue Service (FIRS) within six months of the end of their financial year.

In simple terms, this implies that all companies with financial year end of 31st December 2016 MUST file their self-assessment returns not later than 30th June 2017.

The law demands full compliance. Failure to comply will invite stiff sanctions in accordance with the provision of relevant tax laws.

TAX returns can also be filed online at http://efiling.firs.gov.ng
